WHO IS DANNY STONE

Hi I am Danny Stone,

I'm an Entrepreneur, Coach, Speaker, Teacher, and Author of two best-selling books, You Have The Keys, Now Drive and KNew Me. I have had multiple side-hustles (side businesses) while working a full-time job for more than 10 years.

Finally I made the shift in 2013 into launching a coaching, teaching and speaking business full-time. It feels amazing to do what I love for a living; helping people find more freedom in their lives by transitioning out of the full-time jobs into entrepreneurship. Through the ups and downs, learning, losses and gains, and failures and successes, I have taken everything I learned and coach and teach people how to avoid mistakes and launch and grow successful businesses.

If you are ready to go from employee to entrepreneur get on the wait list for my upcoming program called NO MORE NINE TO NINE. CLICK HERE to get on the list!
